The auto line to Melrose is running daily and is being patronized liberally. This line is quite a help to Tucumcari, many visitors for business and other purposes are coming over from the Santa Fe every day.

Claud Wharton was in town from Endee, yesterday for freight for Hedgecoke, the merchant at Endee, he says while they got no rain Wednesday night as we did here, crops are looking well and will go two weeks longer and then make good corn.

Mr. Spencer visits Tucumcari often but he stated to the editor that he was surprised to see so much improvement going on, and believes we are going to be the best town in eastern New Mexico.

Bloodpoisoning Results From Cactus Thorn Wound

The daughter of J. D. Parker, a prominent farmer living 12 miles south of here died Saturday from blood poisoning, caused by stepping on a cactus thorn.

The thorn pierced the foot and developed very rapidly into an aggravated case, causing her death, in great suffering despite the best medical aid which could be obtained.

Fire Destroys Home of Quay County Widow

The home of Mrs. Mantooth, four miles northeast of town, was burned with all of the contents, while Mrs. Mantooth was in town last Saturday shopping. The citizens have been donating towards assisting her to rebuild her house.

CHURCH BAZAAR.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will have an apron-hankerchief bazaar on the night of July 30th on the vacant lot between the stores of Campbell and Williams.
Will have shelter in case of rain.
Refreshments will be served.
Everybody invited.

Like Tucumcari.

Hines of Chicago, Emigration Agents for the Rock Island and Frisco roads spent Tuesday in this city.

They were favorably enough impressed with our city to invest in real estate here and both predicted a wonderful future for Tucumcari.
